Somebody's Looking For You

My family and I enjoy shirts with funny messages. One of our youth members in Dallas, always seemed to show up in a new shirt with a cute message.

But when he showed up with a camouflage shirt with this message we couldn't stop laughing.

Then I began to look at the message, again, and I realized something; how true this message is of so many Christians.

As we enter the time of the year that separates Christians from every other major religion. I began to wonder, have we as Christians become invisible in our everyday lives? Only to be seen when there are "turf wars" between fundamentalists and moderates? When we are vocal about what other denominations are or aren't doing? When we focus on who is eligible to come to the Lord's table or not? When we...? Do our neighbors know Whose we are? Do our neighbors count on us in their time of need? What would happen if our churches disappeared; would anyone notice? Are we relevant to our community?

As we celebrate the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, let's remember the Power of His Blood, the message of Love He brought from the Father, and the authority we were given to "boldly" go and make disciples, baptizing them... (Matt. 28:19-21)

We are each to engage our neighbors, not necessarily through words, but through the acts of love for them and one for another.

Not to tell them how wrong they are, but that they are precious enough in God's eyes that He sent His Only Son to an old rugged cross.

Peace,
Pastor Eddie
